

John O'Hara
President
Magna Mechatronics / Mirrors / Lighting

John O'Hara joined Magna in 1994. He is currently the President of Magna Mechatronics / Mirrors / Lighting. O'Hara is responsible for the overall management, strategy, and development of Magna's global mechatronics, vision, and lighting business. The group's core capabilities include mechatronic systems, vision systems, lighting systems, and folding/retractable roof business.

O'Hara has over 30 years of automotive supply industry experience and has held many executive positions within Magna over the past 20 years. Prior to joining Magna, John O'Hara worked for TRW Safety Systems for 10 years.

