

Hidden fascia lighting

Hidden light source by day with illuminated shapes and colors in the dark

Features and Specifications

- Light source is hidden from view
- No visual panel or cover lines
- Must have uniform color appearance across fascia (no visual difference in the light area)
- When illuminated it must have sharp edges of light

Core Technology

- New, or new application, of transparent or translucent fascia material
- Localized thin wall manufacturing operation
- Localized paint control
- New, or new application of translucent paint or coating
- New, or new application, light driver and optics

Additional Takeaways

- Aligned with design studio future vision concept vehicle features
- Is a building block for a full lighting suite, aesthetic, signal, and display offerings
- First to market developer connects with the design studio to influence development on future vehicles

