

Declaration of impartiality of ACTS GmbH & Co. KG

ACTS GmbH & Co. KG is an independent testing laboratory and impartial service provider within Magna Steyr Deutschland GmbH. Ensuring objectivity is treated as a top priority and extends to all activities that influence the test results of ACTS, whether directly or indirectly.

The management of ACTS GmbH & Co. KG and the personnel entrusted with performing the activities are under no internal or external commercial, financial or other constraints that could affect the results of their activities or their assessment. The activities are carried out to the highest standards of professional integrity.

The management of the laboratory as well as the personnel instructed to carry out the activities are obliged to comply with the declaration of impartiality.